Location: Great Falls, MT

About the Montana Wilderness Association

Come work for one of the most dynamic conservation organizations in the West. Our mission is to work with communities to protect Montana's Wilderness heritage, quiet beauty, and outdoor traditions now and for future generations. We envision a future where from the rugged mountains to the vast prairies Montana's wild places are protected, connected, and restored because the citizens of our state value wilderness as essential to our heritage and way of life. Founded in 1958, the Montana Wilderness Association (MWA) is the nation's oldest grassroots Wilderness advocacy organization.

Summary of Position:

The Central Montana Field Director (CMT-FD) is responsible for various aspects of programmatic work while building support for issues and campaigns across central Montana. Working with MWA staff, volunteers, and partners, the CMT-FD develops and implements conservation strategies for some of Montana's last best places. S/he works collaboratively on a variety of agency processes and legislative campaigns, while supervising interns, fellows or other staff as needed. The CMT-FD is also responsible for public relations, policy and position development, and engagement organizing strategies within the region.
